These Webinars analyze the process of applying Open Source Intelligence respect to different application fields with the benefits of modern Technologies, but based on the Clear understanding of the Fundamental Principles

OSINT, Open Source Intelligence, allows to day to obtain very Valuable Information from the Big Data available from many Public Sources in totally legal way, therefore it is evident that is approach provides many opportunities as well as critical vulnerabilities to Institutions, Companies and Authorities.

Modern Technologies nowadays provide new ways to conduct Data Mining and Data Fusion therefore it is still fundamental to identify the Criteria to be used to drive the Intelligence Analysis.

From this point of view the Source Classification, the Emotional Analysis as well as the extensive use of Innovative Models, are the key point to succeed and obviously all this relies strongly on the Principles of Strategic Engineering.

Obviously, this Analysis, even if it addresses a National Situation, is very useful also to develop Services and Consultancies on Intelligence to an Agency or a Corporation. Indeed,

The extended and top level experiences of Prof. Paolo Scotto di Castelbianco, STRATEGOS Faculty member and responsible of STRATEGOS Open Intelligence with Prof. Agostino G. Bruzzone will provide a dynamic and interactive discussion with the audience

It is important to note that, today, these Aspects have major role for Businesses and Industries considering the very Dynamic Nature of Current World and the Global Challenges and Threats.

These Webinars are part of a Intelligence Workshop organized by STRATEGOS in Genoa University and are organized in joint cooperation with Confindustria and Ordine Ingegneri and guarantee 2 CFP credits each to Engineers

Genuense
Athenaeum
